Brexit – A Civil Service Perspective:

To register for the Association's half day seminar on Brexit – A Civil Service Perspective.

Email Roisin@hotel-solutions.ie providing name, grade, Department and contact details quoting Brexit – A Civil Service Perspective.

The seminar is on

Thursday 31st May at the Morrison Hotel Lower Ormond Quay Dublin 1.

It commences at 9:15 until lunchtime. A light lunch will be provided. The event is free to AHCPS members.

The speakers are

- Simon Coveney T.D. Tanaiste and Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade
- Mr Brendan Halligan, President, The Institute of International & European Affairs
- Mr Dave Penman, General Secretary, FDA London. The FDA is our sister union in the UK/NI representing senior civil servants.
- Ms Emer Deane. Emer is head of the Brexit Unit in Ireland's Diplomatic mission in Brussels.
- Mr Blair Horan. Blair is Secretary of the Charter Group, a trade union think tank which favours a social EU. Blair is a former General Secretary of the CPSU.

This is an excellent line up of speakers on this topical subject. The aim is to look at how Brexit is and will impact on the work of civil servants in the negotiation stage and after the UK has exited the EU.

Please ensure that this circular is circulated to all members in your branch.

Yours sincerely

Ciaran Rohan
General Secretary
