Footnotes

1. The staff remaining in Dublin in these organisations are those in local offices
2. Numbers cannot be quantified at present.

It should be recognised that it may not be possible to meet individual preferences.

Location within Dublin

Officers may indicate a geographical area of Dublin in which they would prefer to be assigned. It must be recognised that it will not always be possible to meet the expressed preferences and that internal Departmental practices for the processing of applications for transfers will apply.
